

04 | ENcompass

English Now!/WCIE Activity Calendar - April 2021

Join us Online from Anywhere in the World!

English Now!

www.english-now.com
info@english-now.com
+1.301.718.3575

★ ENGLISH NOW! OUTINGS ★

Register here | info@english-now.com

International Walk & Talk

Outdoor outings start this month - every other week, outside, socially-distanced, in small groups (so register soon) - and together. Help us welcome people who have moved to the area during the pandemic.

International Walk & Talk

Kenwood Cherry Blossoms In-Person

02, Fri 10:30am

Many consider Bethesda's Kenwood neighborhood one of the best places in the area to view cherry trees in bloom. See blossoms near their peak and reconnect. (~ 2.0 miles)

New York's Historic Hudson Valley Online

09, Fri 10:30am

Castles, historic homes, gardens, museums, wineries, and much more line the banks of the mighty Hudson River. Let's explore this magnificent part of the Empire State, north of NYC.

International Walk & Talk

Against Racism In-Person *Community Service Week Event

17, Sat 10:30am

A walk with a purpose, from the Chinatown Arch to the Museum of African American History & Culture to the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial in Washington, D.C. Learn about the struggle against racism and share a meaningful morning together. (~ 2.0 miles)

Architectural Gems of Manhattan Online

23, Fri 10:30am

On this outing we will visit some of Manhattan's most iconic buildings including the The Chrysler Building, Radio City Music Hall, the Flatiron Building, and the Guggenheim Museum, to name a few!

International Walk & Talk

The Billy Goat Trail In-Person

30, Fri 10:30am

Hike through the forest and next to the Potomac River, on paths near Great Falls in Montgomery County. It's not far away, and you'll be surprised how much nature you can experience so close to Washington, D.C. (~ 1.7 miles)

★ COMMUNITY SERVICE WEEK ★

Information & Sign up here | communityservice@washingtoncie.org

Think globally, serve locally during our Spring 2021 Community Service Week.

We organize these activities to connect the international and the local communities - and to inspire us all.

Help Neighbors In Need

DONATE FOOD, HOUSEHOLD GOODS, SCHOOL SUPPLIES, OR MASKS

Contributions go to local families through partners September House MAJ and Identity, Inc.

• IN-PERSON DROPOFFS AT ENGLISH NOW!

13, Tue & 16, Fri 7:30-10:00 am

• ANOTHER DROPOFF OPTION

12, Mon-16, Fri 8:00am - 6:00pm

8509 Howell Rd, Bethesda, MD, 20817

• ORDER ONLINE

Any Time

Order items pre-selected by our partners from our website

Fight Racism

PROGRAM: ANTI-ASIAN RACISM DURING THE PANDEMIC

14, Wed 12:15pm, on Zoom

Racism against Asians is a problem nation- and worldwide and in our community too. Learn why. Come together against racism.

INTERNATIONAL WALK & TALK AGAINST RACISM

17, Sat 10:30am, in-person

International Walk & Talk Against Racism, from the Chinatown Arch in Washington, D.C. to the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial.

FOR HS STUDENTS

WCIE's SSL program Youth Facing Racism is ongoing during Community Service Week. Learn more here and join the next offering of this program.

Serve Refugees in the Community

Learn About Climate Change

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES ON THE CLIMATE CRISIS

22, Thur 3:00pm, on Zoom

What is climate change and what can we do about it? In recognition of Earth Day, learn about the causes of climate change and its impacts around the world. Then, we will engage in small group conversations about actions we can take to care for our world.

Tell Your Friends!

Community Service Week activities are open to friends and family members of our school community.

We want to encourage Washington, D.C.'s international community to connect and engage locally.

Share about our events from Instagram @englishnow_wcie or Facebook at englishnowwashingtondc