

11-12

EN compass

English Now!/WCIE Activity Calendar - Nov/Dec 2020

Join us Online from Anywhere in the World!

English Now!

www.english-now.com
info@english-now.com
+1.301.718.3575

★ English Now! Friday Outings ★

Register here | info@english-now.com

Washington Mall & Monuments IN-PERSON!

Nov 06, Fri 10:30 am

Tour monuments on the National Mall. Explore and experience America's history and culture. We will observe COVID protocols, but we will be IN-PERSON and together again!

10 National Parks in MD You MUST See

Nov 13, Fri 10:30 am

Need more ideas for outings? Learn about national parks and sites you may not have known about, such as The Harriet Tubman Underground Museum, Fort Washington, Hampton House, and a Colonial Farm.

Jim Crow Museum (Big Rapids, Michigan)

Nov 20, Fri 10:30 am

We continue to explore the painful history of racism in the U.S., with a video tour of this museum. See a selection of artifacts from its collections and learn about systems that dehumanized and oppressed African Americans.

NY Series Take a Bite of the Big Apple: An Insider's Guide to New York

Dec 2020 - Jan 2021

Join one, two, or more special NY outings. Each virtual tour will be followed by Q&A with NY/Brooklyn native and English Now! colleague Ellyn Leverone. NY tours continue in January. Visit each of NYC's five boroughs and more!

Manhattan-Beyond Times Square

Dec 4, Fri 10:30 am

See the city that never sleeps! Explore places in New York's most famous borough that visitors rarely see, including the Garment and Flower districts, secret gems of Central Park, and neighborhoods with charming streets.

The Best of Brooklyn

Dec 11, Fri 10:30 am

Take a virtual walk over the Brooklyn Bridge. Visit the historic beach and amusement park at Coney Island, elegant Brooklyn Heights, and the hippest neighborhoods in town including Williamsburg, DUMBO, and Park Slope.

The Diversity that is Queens

Dec 18, Fri 10:30 am

Visit Queens, where more than 800 (!) languages are spoken. See neighborhoods with diverse traditions and delicious food - homes to immigrants from Greece, India, China, and more. We'll also visit the site of the 1964 World's Fair.

★ WCIE Community Learning, Community Service & SSL Programs ★

Register here | communityservice@washingtoncie.org

Students Facing the Global Migration & Refugee Crisis SSL Program Info Session

Nov 5, Thur 4:30 pm

Susan Kay and Nancy Wolf will introduce this dynamic WCIE SSL program for high school students, which includes a diplomatic simulation designed by the U.S. Department of State as well as an advocacy project. Program is Dec 7 and 9; more information here.

Global Perspectives on the U.S. Election Results

The World was Watching

Nov 12, Thur 12:15 pm

Election day is finally behind us. Join us to talk about what happened and how people are responding. Students and alumni will tell us how their friends and family around the globe are reacting to the news.

Managing Conflict at Home through Communication

Nov 17, Tue 12:15 pm

Sandra Montenegro will lead this practical, problem-solving event. Ms. Montenegro is a mediator with a legal background, originally from Brazil. She lives in Virginia with her family and speaks English, Portuguese, Spanish, and French.

Thanksgiving Traditions and Giving Thanks

Nov 24, Tue 12:15 pm

We will teach common proverbs or sayings about gratitude and invite you to share some from your culture. Join us to explore Thanksgiving in the U.S. and around the world. Families and friends welcome.

Holiday Outing at a Christmas Tree Farm

IN-PERSON!

Nov 28, Sat 11:30 am

Visit a Christmas tree farm! We'll talk about Christmas and other seasonal U.S. holiday traditions. Select decorations for your home and cut your own tree if you wish. Safe, socially-distanced, and outside.

Students Facing Global Fresh Water Crisis SSL Program Info Session

Dec 16, Wed 4:30 pm

Susan Kay and Nancy Wolf will introduce another WCIE SSL program for high school students, which includes a diplomatic simulation designed by the U.S. Department of State as well as a service/advocacy project. Program is Feb 1 & 3, 2021. Teens in South America can join classes in January then this program!